

KEVIN KO

MANAGING DIRECTOR, RADIUS INNOVATION AND DEVELOPMENT

INNOVATION. REALIZED.

A photograph of Kevin Ko, a man with short dark hair and glasses, wearing a dark suit jacket over a white shirt. He is speaking and gesturing with his hands, holding a small black device. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

INNOVATION.

REALIZED.

Kevin brings exceptional leadership and considerable experience in innovation and product development that he has gained in nearly twenty years in the industry. Kevin is responsible for the overall management and leadership of the China region currently consisting of the Hong Kong and Beijing offices, coordination of activities with the Global Radius offices, and responsibility for customer and business partner relations throughout China.

Most recently Kevin was with Microsoft in the position of Hardware Development Manager with their MACH group where he has worked on some of their most advanced projects. Prior to that, he spent 10 years at Flextronics as a Senior Manager in Product Development. He spent the early part of his career working at various design firms in silicon valley including Palo Alto Design Group.

Kevin recently completed his MBA at the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology and earned an undergraduate degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Wisconsin (Go Badgers!). He continues to be actively involved with his alma mater as the Vice President of the Chinese Student Association.
